EDUCATION FOR LIFE

Erasmus+ Experiences in Málaga & Madrid

Erasmus+ Organisation ID (OID): E10275225

About Us

Formex is an Irish-owned education and mobility provider based in Spain, specialising in the design and delivery of high-quality Erasmus+ mobility programmes in Málaga and Madrid. We work with schools, VET providers, universities and educational organisations across Europe to create meaningful international learning experiences that combine language development, workplace learning, cultural immersion and personal growth.

Our programmes include internships, Spanish language courses, accommodation, cultural activities, local support, monitoring and Erasmus+ documentation, tailored to each organisation's learning objectives.

With strong links to Irish and European education sectors, Formex provides reliable on-the-ground delivery while supporting long-term partnerships that help participants develop the skills, confidence and international experience needed for future academic and professional success.
